From the Pastor. Special guests this Sunday are Robbie and Janice Caldwell from New Harmony Baptist Church, Tyler. Robbie is a long-time friend and long-time Pastor at New Harmony. Janice teaches speech courses at Jacksonville College. Bro. Robbie will be preaching for us, so please give them a big Tundra welcome.

This past Wednesday I came down with a cold, along with the normal sinus congestion, watery eyes and cough that go with that. On Friday, after a phone consultation, I went to the clinic to get tested. After a throat swab for strep and the much dreaded nose/brain swab for COVID-19, I waited for the verdict. When the nurse got back to me, after much anxious waiting, she said, "Good news! You tested positive for strep, but negative for coronavirus." I said "yay!" Randy Decker commented, "It's pretty bad when having strep is good news."

So, I won't be with you this Sunday. But we have a great preacher in my place and I'm sure he will have a message that will both proclaim God's Word and touch your heart. Randy will be back leading worship and Jerry and Sherry are back in town for a few days. God's blessings on all our Lord's Day activities.

What's that I hear? Applause all around for the Jacksonville College Choral Ensemble. A great group of young people, talented musicians producing great music. Led by our own Randy Decker. Congratulations for the success in their first mini-tour. Thanks for stopping by Tundra.
